Dear Joshua,

You may recall that you expressed an interest in my reasoning concerning counter-C3 warfare. While we did not have a chance to go into the matter in any depth, I thought that you might find the enclosed draft paper, "Escalation Constraints and Counter-C3 Warfare", of interest. I wrote it for Iklé's office as part of our examination of possible employment policies for extended selective nuclear engagements.

I would emphasize that it is only a draft. Certainly I would appreciate any comments on my line of reasoning while it is still in the process of formulation.

In any case, I look forward to our next opportunity to meet.

Sincerely,

Richard I. Brody
